Benevolence Request Form

(fill out as much of the form as you can)

Instructions:

1. Fill out this form. When done, please contact us at deacons@crestviewchurch.org to let us know you are coming. Bring this form with you. The Benevolence process will typically require 2-3 meetings over 2-3 weeks.
2. Meetings are at Crestview Church, 3665 Madison Ave, Boulder, on Sunday's after church (at 10:30AM, which is the end of service). If this time is not possible for you, you may request another time, but this will most likely lengthen the process. For safety, our church doors are locked during our service, so if you arrive before the end of service, just knock on the EAST door next to the paved parking lot. A safety team member will let you in. Tell that person you are meeting with the deacons.
3. Feel free to grab some coffee, juice, and snacks. Meet at the table closest to the church office (ask anyone for a deacon if we're not already at the table)
4. The first meeting is simply for the deacons to read through your form, get to know you, and hear your story.
5. The deacons discuss your case during the week. We will contact you about what other documentation / information is needed.
6. Second and subsequent meetings are at Crestview, same place/time. The purpose is to discuss your situation with you further and figure out how we can best help.
7. The deacons again discuss the case and contact whatever people/creditors/etc. are necessary. If we have all the information needed to make a decision, we may take action and inform you. If we don't have all the information, we let you know what we need and set up a follow-up meeting. Go back to step 6.
