

Director/Pastor of Worship Arts

Crestview Church
Boulder, CO

What we are looking for?

We would like to hire a person to lead our worship ministry 10-15 hours a week who is passionate about serving God through worship. We are an authentic Christian community in Boulder, CO seeking to follow Jesus faithfully through loving God and our neighbors. Do you resonate with this simple call of God on your life to join us in ministry at Crestview Church? Apply now to join our community!

Key responsibilities:

Worship director would:

- Plan, coordinate, facilitate, implement and lead worship services and worship team participants on a weekly basis.
- Help plan and implement special services such as Christmas, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and Easter.
- Partner with the pastor and other worship leaders to plan and implement worship services.
- Oversee the music, visual arts, sound, video, lighting and volunteer teams for our weekly worship services.
- Coordinate weekly worship services using Planning Center software.
- Manage worship budget.
- Meet regularly with pastor, who oversees this position.

Minimum qualifications:

- Proficient in vocal or instrumental congregational leadership.
- Ability to organize and manage details of weekly worship planning and implementation.
- Computer skills and experience with or willingness to learn Planning Center worship software.
- Committed to following Christ and giving voice to a growing relationship with God.

Preferred qualifications:

Formal music training and worship leadership education would be preferred. If no formal education is present, worship and music leadership proficiency could be demonstrated through video or in person through the interview process.

Please contact Pastor Mark Quist with inquiries, further questions and interest:

Email: mquist4neighboring@gmail.com Phone: 303-910-6563